Home Mortgage Refinance / Loan Readjustments

Furloughs have been tough for us all. If you have been subject to furloughs and make home mortgage payments, please consider visiting <http://www.makinghomesaffordable.gov/> to see if you are eligible to receive refinancing or a lower home payment through the federal stimulus program. We urge all homeowners who are suffering from decreased earnings to visit this site and check their eligibility.

We were touched by the number of responses and the stories from members regarding the impact of furloughs on their lives and its impact on public safety, so please keep them coming . . .
